ADVERTISEMENTS 91

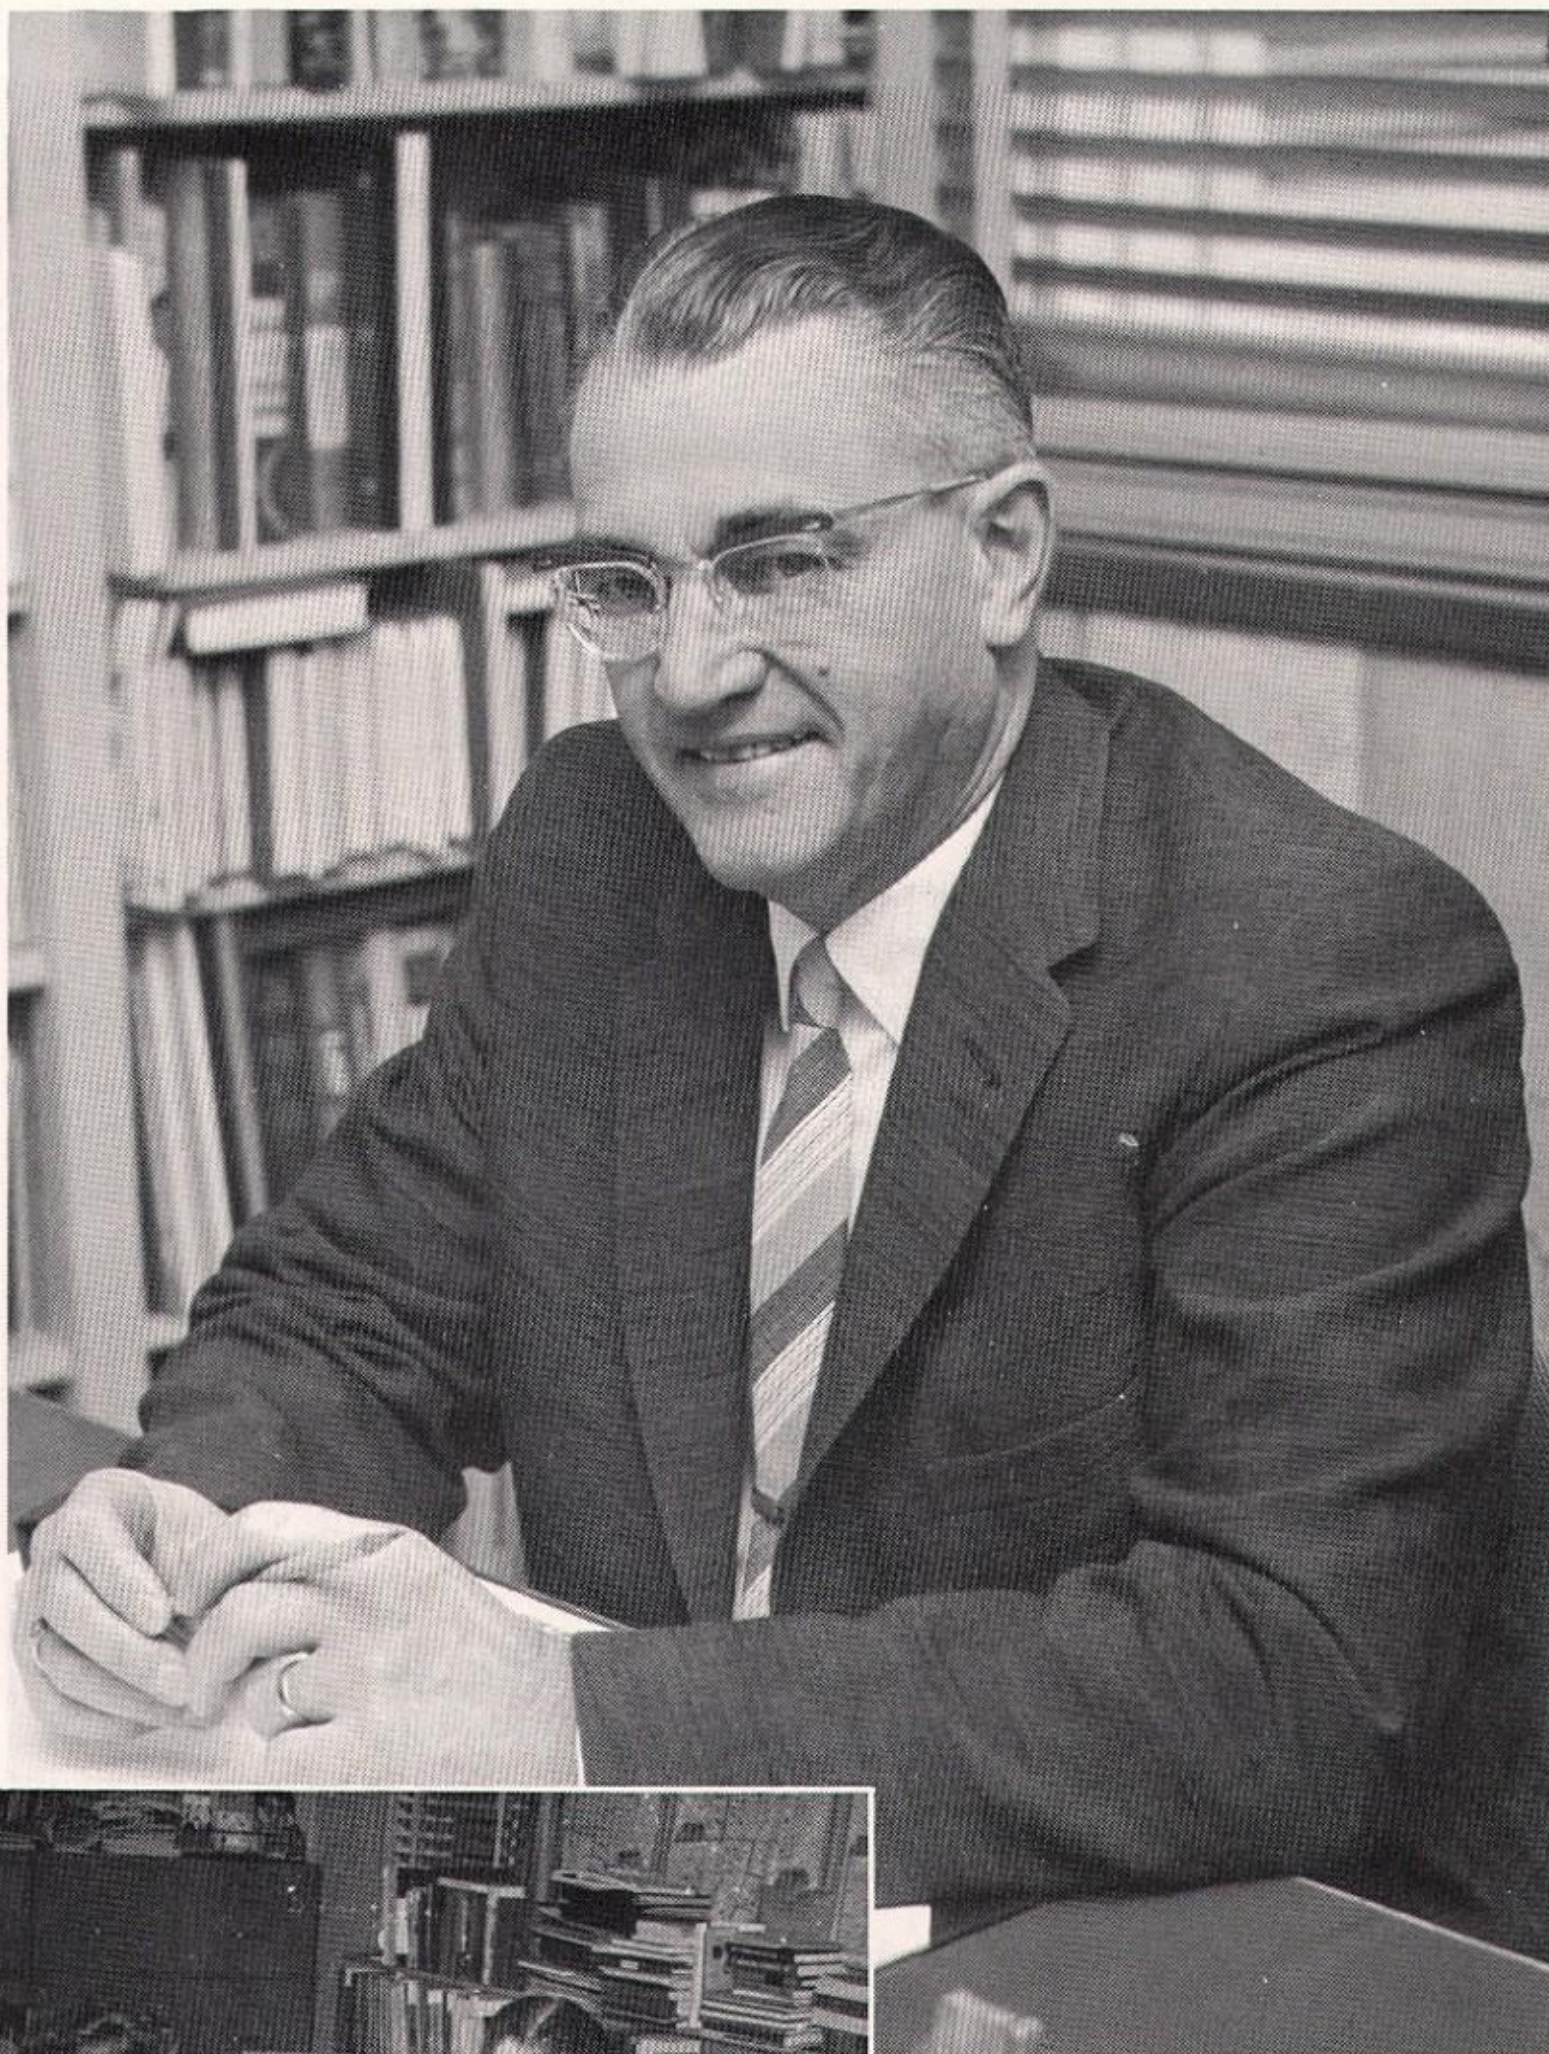

McMinnville High School faculty has helped students in their difficulties through high school. They deserve our credit for their friendly and sound counselling. Shown at the McMinnville Education Association meeting are: Mr. McManus, Mr. Myers, Mr. Paul, and Mr. Bender.

ADMINISTRATION

Fred J. Patton, superintendent, directs the educational program of School District No. 40.

Mr. Patton and his secretary, Mrs. Mary Lou Collins, look through the monthly bills.

Board of Education

The policy making body of School District No. 40, is the board of education. It determines the educational program and building needs, and provides the instructional staff for McMinnville's public schools. Members are: Mr. Laurence Schreiber, Mr. Stanley Christenson, Mr. Kent Savage, Chairman Mrs. Maud Youngman, and Mr. Waldo Sears.

Mr. Myers, serving his first year as principal of McMinnville High School, was well accepted by everyone because of his friendly manner and smile.

Mr. Baisch, completing his first year as vice principal, is shown flashing one of his smiles, which are so well known around McMinnville High School.

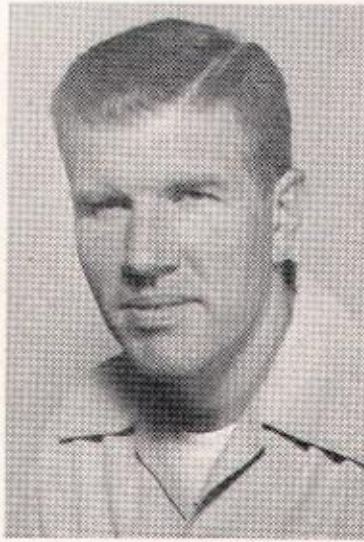

Miss Mary Ellen Gill, dean of girls, is kept very busy counselling the girls of McMinnville High School.

Mr. Robert Paul, dean of boys, as guidance chairman, is concerned with senior scholarships and job placements.

Mrs. Pat Cowlthroe, secretary of McMinnville High School, is the adept lady behind office efficiency.

Mrs. Mary Lou Collins, the superintendent's secretary, cheerfully greets visitors to the office of School District No. 40.

Mrs. Goldie Collins, Mrs. Carol Hartzell, and Mrs. Mary Lynn, the cafeteria cooks, prepare the students' noon meals.

Custodians, Mr. Albert Nelson, Mr. Ernest Johnson, Mr. Arlo Oleson, and Mr. Milo Cowlthrop, are the men behind the scenes.

Student Body Officers

Worrell, president, presides over student council meetings; Molly Sears, secretary, keeps the minutes at student council meetings; and Jim Hay, vice-president, heads the school assembly program.

Student Body Officers

The Student Council is the governing body of the student body of McMinnville High School. This group decides policies concerning student activities, student awards, and student constitution. Members of the Student Council are: ROW ONE: J. Prouty, J. Schmitz, L. Fender, V. Walker, V. Bergreen, J. Plomp, P. Russell,

D. Horton, M. Hight, T. Worrell. ROW TWO: D. Larsen, M. McGhehey, B. Wilson, J. Wakefield, D. Confer, S. Thomas, S. Helser, N. Good, A. Heringer, T. Buckley, V. Mekkers. ROW THREE: J. Buller, R. Kline, A. Larsen, B. Sams, J. Church, M. Powell, H. Compton, L. Dillin, Paul Danley.

After attending school every year for twelve years, students look forward to graduation from high school. These happy seniors who are trying on samples of new caps and gowns for this year are: Sandy Lawson, Terry McDowell, Jo Ann Wright, Don Carlson, and Larry Phillips.

Senior Class

The Senior Class of 1959 has been outstanding since their freshman year. This year, under the guidance of Mrs. Six and Mr. Asbury, class advisors, they continued to prove their abilities in three main fields — athletics, leadership, and scholarship.

After four years of hard work, fun, and achievements, the class of 1959 can be proud to be the largest class ever to have been graduated from McMinnville High School.

The Class officers were Tom Buckley and Allen Larsen, presidents, Walt Rassmussen, vice president, Judy Wakefield, secretary, Dick Bernards, sergeant-at-arms, and Margie Hight, treasurer.

Senior Autographs

A varied curriculum is available to students in McMinnville High School. Along with academic subjects, vocational courses are offered. Here Larry Smith, an Industrial Arts student, is shown turning a bowl on the lathe.

CLASSWORK

One of the highlights of first year Biology is laboratory work. Here Wade Miller and Orville Erickson are shown dissecting an earthworm.

Business Machines, one of the Business Education courses, prepares graduate students for office work. Helen Daher prepares to use the mimeograph machine.

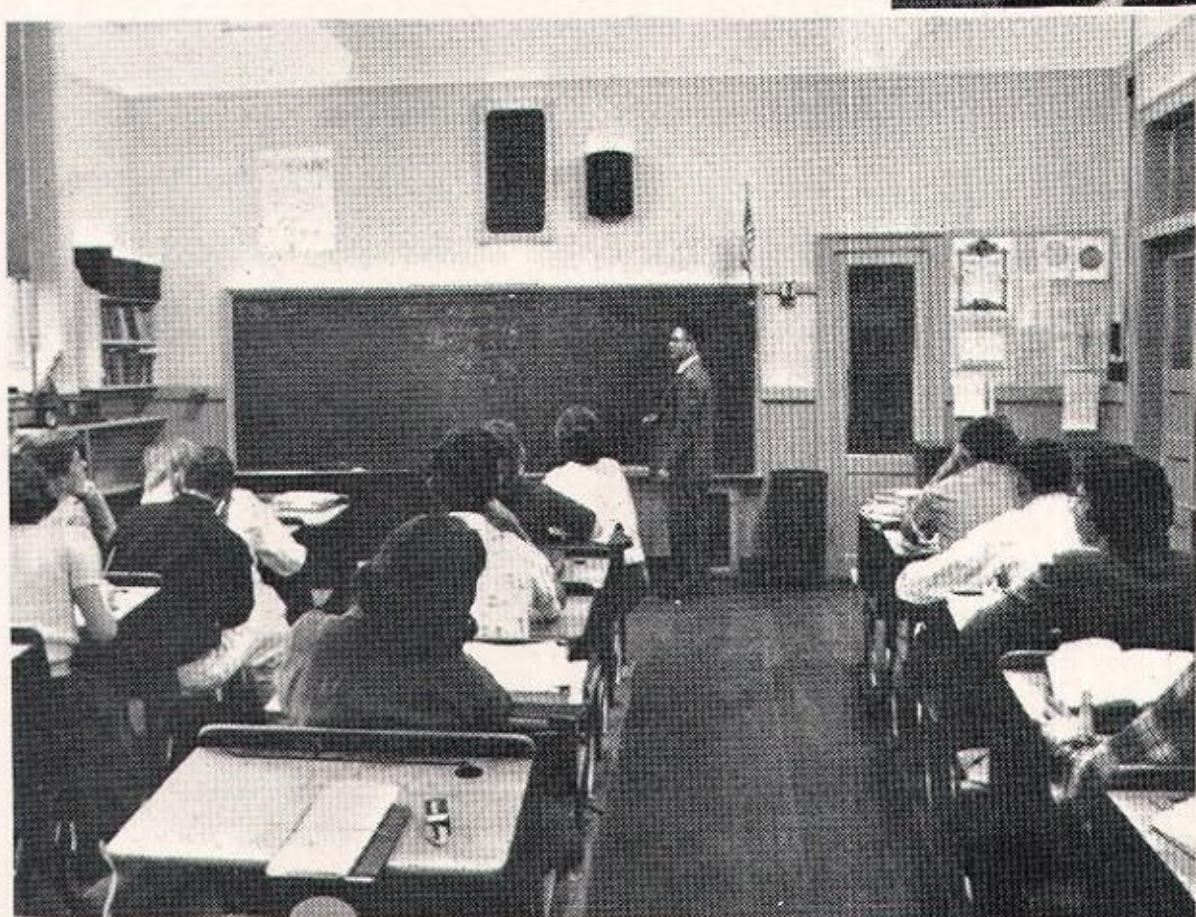

First year Algebra, for many Mac High students, is the beginning of high school math. Here Mr. Tate explains a problem to one of his classes.

Of the many science courses offered at Mac High, General Science is proving to be very popular with the freshmen. Mr. Bender and a student discuss a science topic for the class in this classroom scene.

Typing is a basic course in Business Education training. Students develop skill and speed in first year typing class, shown here.

Mr. Paul is shown demonstrating a point to his Plane Geometry students.

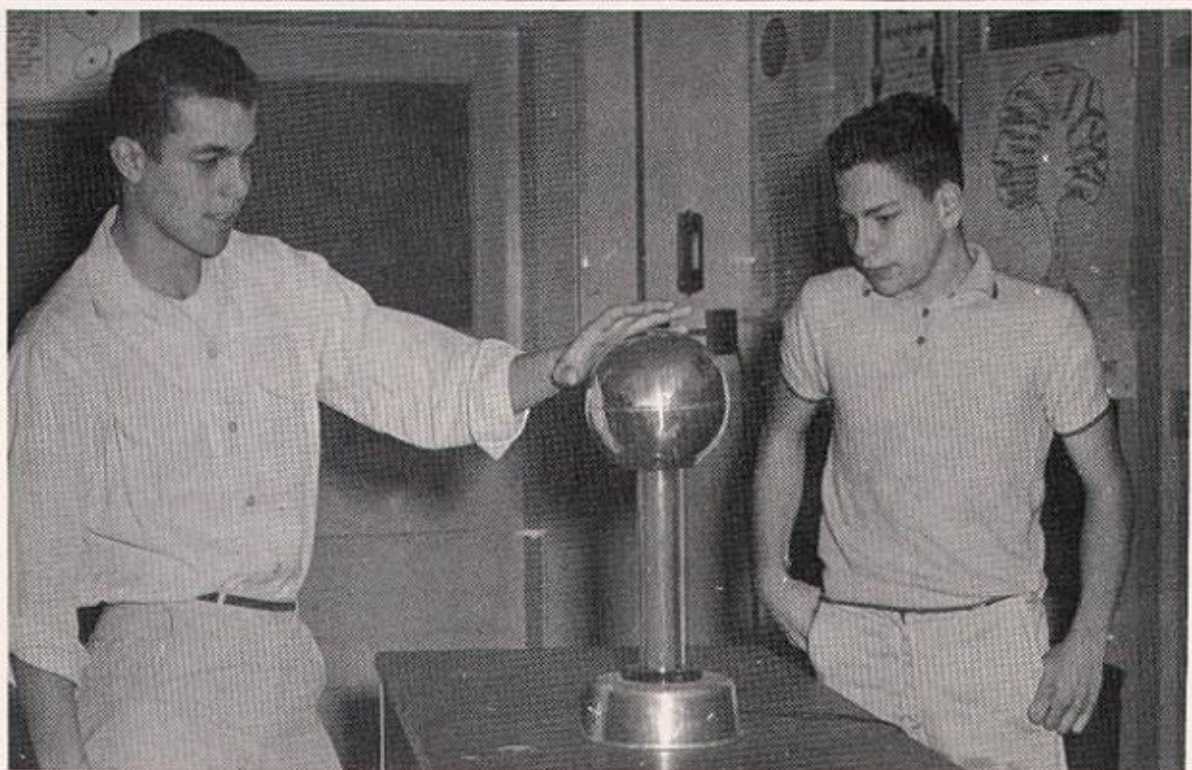

Mrs. Anne Six, English IV teacher, explains a literature assignment to Terry McDowell.

Karen Sams and Barbara Shank sample some of their own cooking during first year Home Economics Class.

Lawrence Phillips practices a speech by tape recording it during Speech class.

Carl Anderson and Dean Tate experience a 25,000 volt static shock from Dean's Van De Graff generator in General Science.

Various organizations are an important part in the curriculum of McMinnville High School. The organizations take part in many affairs. The choir, shown above, is presenting their Christ-concert.

This lighted bulletin board outside the school lets everyone know of the coming highlights and events in McMinnville High School. Shown is Vinnie Mekker, Sgt.-at-Arms, who keeps this board up to date.

HIGHLIGHTS

T.B. tests were administered to all Mac High students wishing them. Doyle Little is pictured receiving his test.

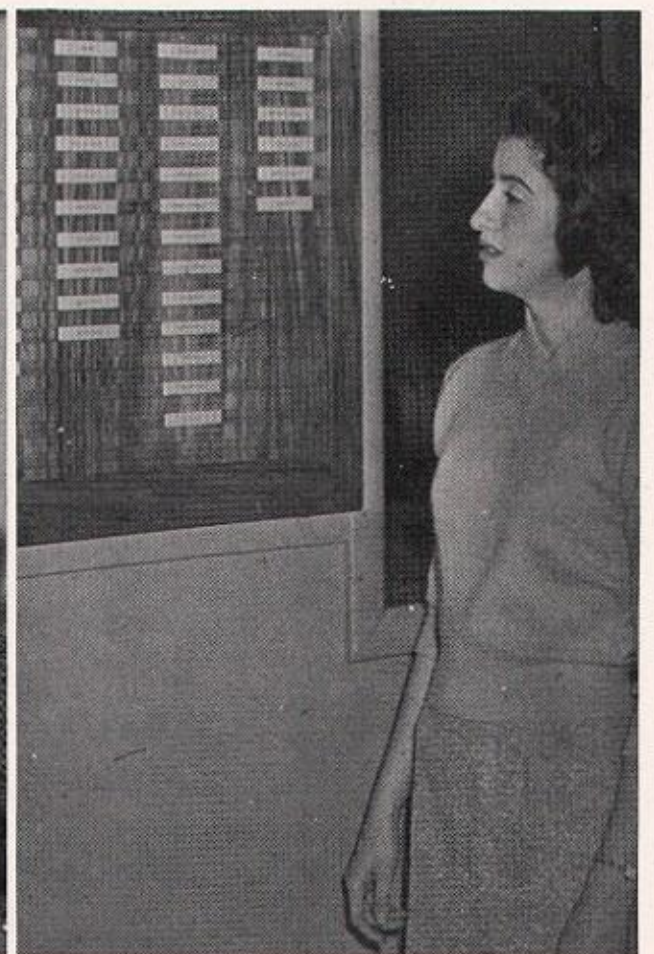

JoAnn Kerr represented Mac High School in the "My True Security" contest, winning the district title.

Varied Activities Challenge

The Mac High speech team represented the school at the Linfield Speech Contest. They were Mike Powell, Larry Lockwood, Jill Prouty, John Dashney, Dennis Crow, Sandy Thair, and Joan Shaw.

Student's Talents

Jill James was chosen by popular vote of the students to reign as Miss Holiday of 1958. She ushered in the Christmas season. Jill was crowned at the Christmas Dance.

Mac High couples take time out to relax and discuss the evening's highlights.

Miss Holiday Reigns Over Christmas Season

"White Mist" was the theme of this year's Christmas Dance. This scene depicts a winter wonderland.

QUEEN COLLEEN I

The fast-paced excitement of the ASB play began with the first rehearsal and ended when the curtain rang down on the final performance. The students who participate in a play like "The Man Who Came To Dinner," have a chance to learn cooperation and direction. Many rewarding friendships are made through such an endeavor and the students know they have surely accomplished something worthwhile.

ASB Play

ASB Play Cast, ROW ONE: S. Savage, M. Bjornson, L. O'Dell, B. Mosiman. ROW TWO: J. Plomp, G. Parker, S. Krohn, P. Honn, K. Nickell, R. Shaklee. ROW THREE: J. Ulrich, E. Cummins, T. Worrell, M. Nored, D. Crow, L. Craven, D. Fleming.

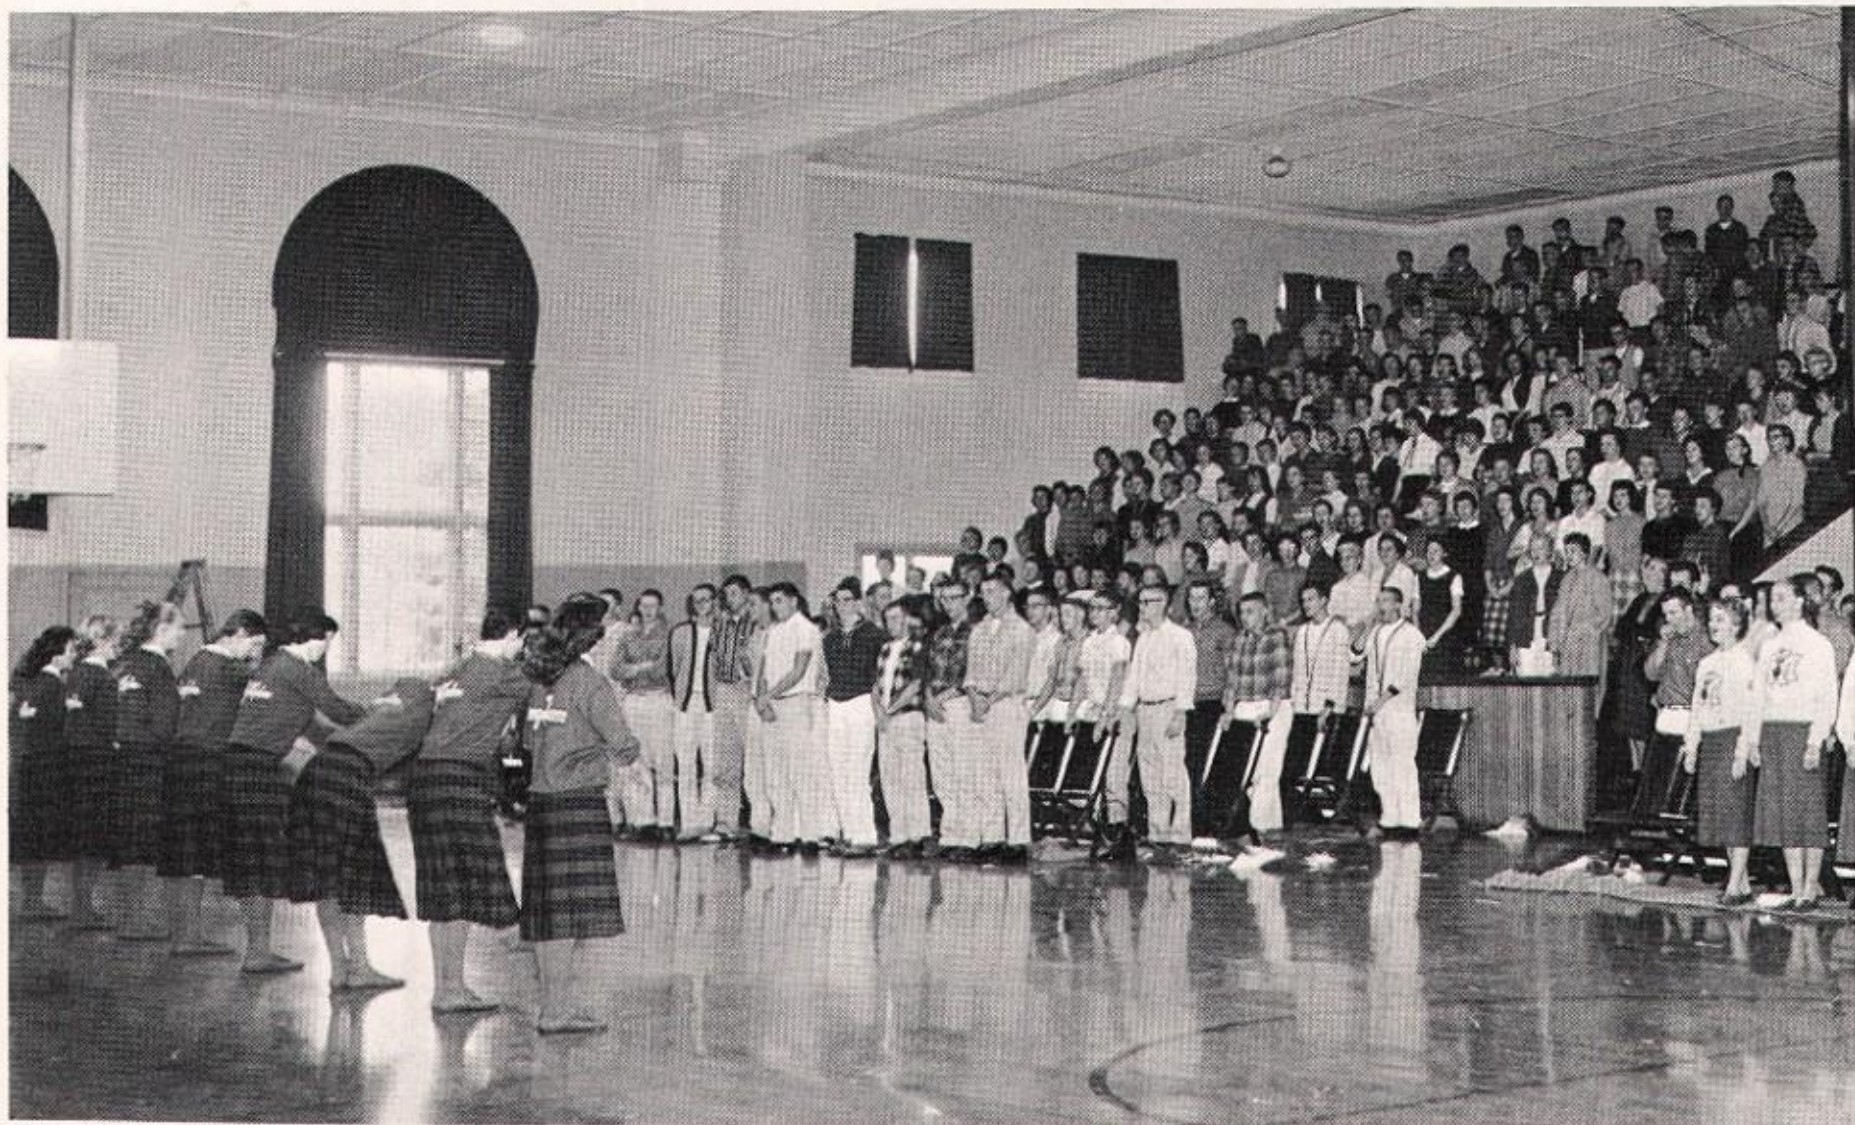

Jim Hay and Terry McDowell pantomimed to the record, Delicious, at the assembly put on by the football team.

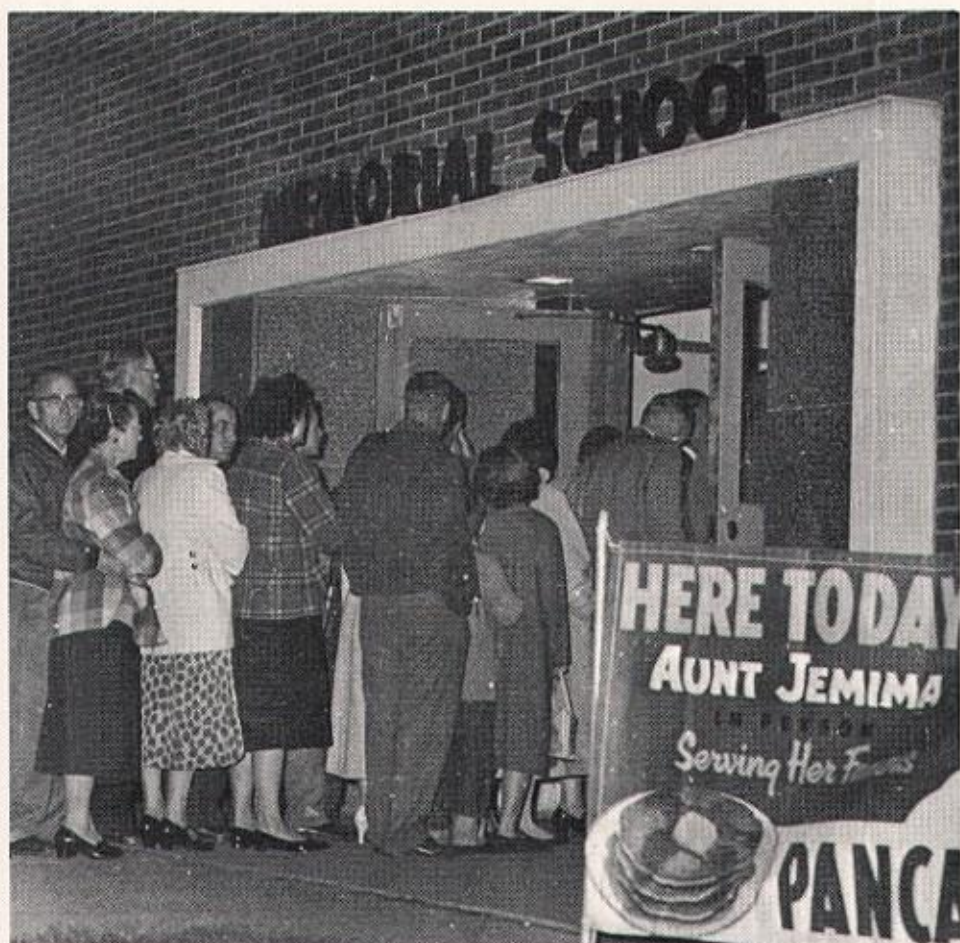

The Rally Squad girls demonstrated at a Pep Assembly, how the Grizzlies would play against the Tillamook Cheesemakers the following night.

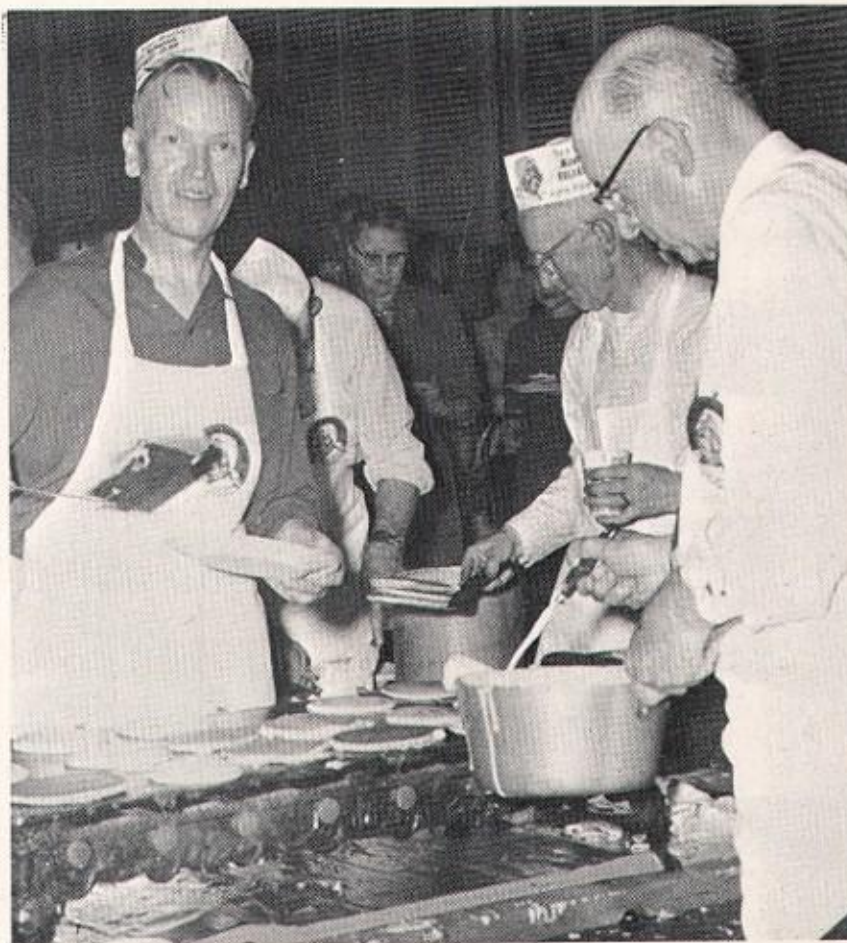

Mac High Students sang the Alma-Mater after a Pep Assembly lead by the Yell and Song Leaders.

Pep Assemblies were enjoyed by all Mac High School students throughout the year.

Many people turned out for the Pancake feed put on by the Kiwanis Club. The proceeds went to McMinnville High School for the purchase of an Activity bus.

Members of the Kiwanis Club seemed to enjoy serving Pancakes to the tremendous crowd that turned out for the Aunt Jemima Pancake feed.

Jim Hay escorted Pat Russell to the stage, after she was tapped into the National Honor Society.

The Rally Squad girls did yells in the hall during the noon hour, trying to get Mac High Students to back the team.

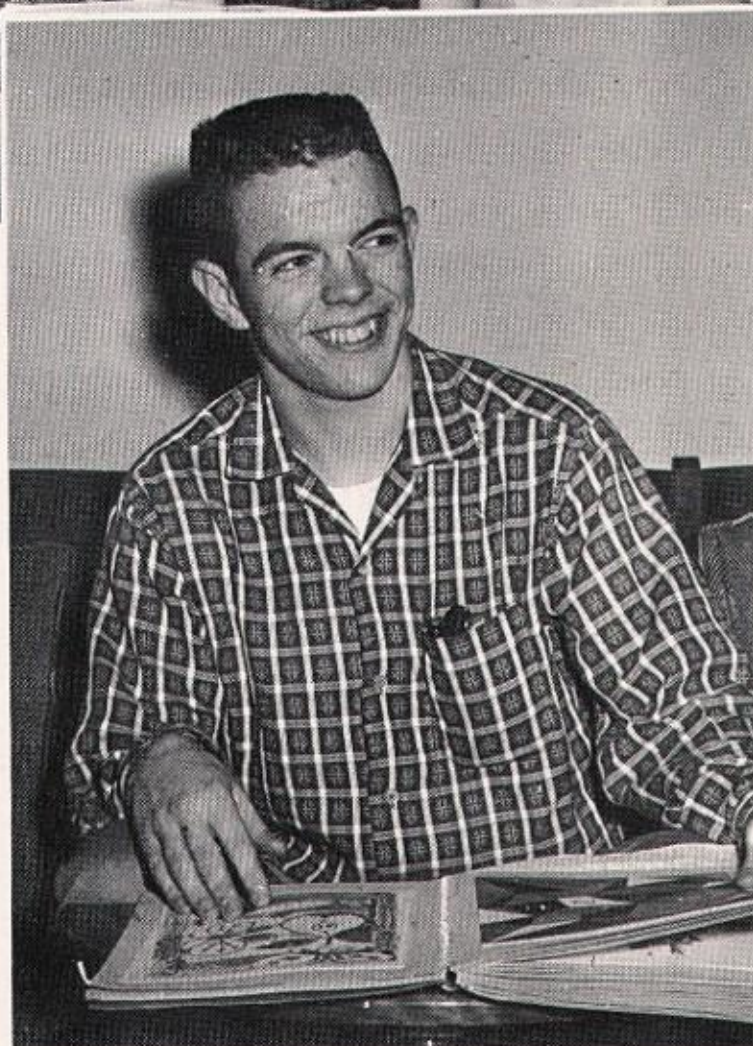

A. F. S. Students

Jane Plomp was McMinnville High School's foreign exchange student from the Netherlands. While in McMinnville, she stayed with the Kenneth Trolan family.

Students who applied for this year's American Field Scholarship were Wanda Daniels, Emily Miller, Penny Honn, Janet Trolan, Sue Savage, and John Dashney.

Elliot Cummins, Mac High's foreign exchange student, traveled to Italy last summer, where he lived with his Italian "family" in Torino.

In Memoriam

This book is dedicated to Roy A. Jespersen, Mac High Junior, who was killed in an unfortunate accident on January 18, 1959. Roy had outstanding ability in athletics. He was selected to the TYV League All-Star football team, and was chosen as a member of the All-

State second string football team. Roy was also a good student. A trophy, The Jespersen Memorial, is being sponsored by the Junior Class in memory of Roy. Each year, it will be awarded to the outstanding Junior football player of the year.

The Minstrel Show, presented by the Choir in February, and under the direction of Mr. Tjernlund, was one of the year's major attractions. It gave students and townspeople an opportunity to view this fabulous part of Minstrel History. The Endmen were Dick Kaiser, Mary Bjornson, Jerry Wilkinson, Dean Safley, Janice Herring, Elliott Cummins and the Interlocutor was Mike Nored.

The McMinnville High School Band, under the direction of Mr. McManus, presented one of the most enjoyable concerts ever to reach McMinnville. Their special guest was Bill Page of the Lawrence Welk orchestra. His versatility and talent pleased everyone who attended the evening concert.

As two Mac High Seniors walk down the hall for the last time, they recall all the happy memories they have had during their four years of high school. The building is now left to the school spirits and custodial staff until the fall, when new and returning students again invade its doors and look forward to a new year of activities.
